City Seeking Volunteers for Community Clean Up

Harrisonburg, Va. – The city of Harrisonburg has opened registration for Blacks Run and Downtown Clean Up Day and is looking for volunteers who would like to make a difference in their community.

“Trash accumulates in Blacks Run throughout the year and this is a chance for everyone to work together to clean up their environment,” says Wes Runion, environmental specialist with the Public Works Department. Last year, 600 volunteers picked up more than 4 tons of refuse during the event.

Blacks Run and Downtown Clean Up Day is taking place the morning of Saturday, April 13th. In addition to the cleanup, there will be an opportunity to visit displays from different environmental organizations at the Green Scene, and a chance to win prizes in the #BRCD2019 social media competition.

Registration for Blacks Run and Downtown Clean Up Day is now available by visiting www.cleanstream.org or the Facebook Event.

The event would not be possible without the Zane Showker Harrisonburg Greenway Fund which supports the cleanup and beautification of Blacks Run.
