Harrisonburg Police Make Arrest After Brief Standoff

HARRISONBURG, VA – On March 27, 2019 the Harrisonburg Police Department responded to 192 Logan Lane for a welfare check.

The caller stated that 33-year-old Alfred F. Isbell was inside the residence and was wanted for unauthorized use of a vehicle, abduction and assault of a family member. An additional individual confirmed that Isbell was in the residence and may be hiding in the upper floor of the apartment.

A search warrant was issued for Isbell in the residence and ultimately Isbell surrendered to the police. Numerous officers responded to the scene, including members of the Crisis Negotiations Team and SWAT Team, who spoke with him and led him out of the residence without incident. He was transported to the Rockingham-Harrisonburg Regional Jail and held without bond.
