Harrisonburg Police Seek Assistance Identifying Suspects in Fraud

Harrisonburg, Va. – The Harrisonburg Police Department is seeking assistance from the public to identify three unknown subjects believed to have committed fraud on August 10.

The victim reported that her wallet was lost while at a yard sale in the New Market, VA area. Her card was then used at several stores in the Harrisonburg area.

Pictured, are three subjects from surveillance footage using the victim's cards. The younger female may be indentified by a unique tattoo on her left forearm. She is seen with another female, possibly in her 50's with short hair, and a third subject described as a tall black male in his 20's.

The subjects were found to be travelling in a dark navy-blue Chrysler minivan at the time of the offenses. If you are able to identify any of the subjects pictured, HPD asks that you contact them by calling the Major Crimes Unit at (540) 437-2650. Callers may remain anonymous by contacting Crime Solvers at (540) 574-5050 or texting "HPD" plus their tip to CRIMES (274637).
