JMU Police Seeking Assistance Identifying Theft Suspects

Harrisonburg, Va. – On September 3, 2019 at approximately 11:45 a.m. two separate buildings on the campus of James Madison University were entered by a suspect who proceeded into two offices and stole a purse and wallet.

After the discovery of the thefts, numerous large purchases were made in Harrisonburg, VA by three subjects with credit cards taken during the theft. The suspects, pictured, were described as two black males and one black female. They were believed to be travelling in a white Chrysler minivan at the time of the fraudulent purchases.

Anyone with information about this case or who can identify any of the pictured suspects is encouraged to contact the JMU Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division by calling 540-568-6711.
