Search Warrant Nets Fugitives

HARRISONBURG, VA – On May 10, 2021 at approximately 11:20 a.m., officers with the Harrisonburg Police Department responded to the 800 block of Blue Ridge Dr. to assist the U.S. Marshals Service who were looking for two wanted individuals out of Ohio.

Once the immediate area was secured, members of HPD's Patrol and Special Operations Divisions maintained presence at the location while a search warrant was obtained. Blue Ridge Drive was blocked off between Bobwhite Place and Star Crest Drive during the operation.

Officers subsequently executed the search warrant which resulted in the capture of two male suspects and the arrest of two females also at the residence, without further incident. One male suspect sustained an injury to the foot during the apprehension.

Taken into custody were:

Bryan Bassett, 32, - wanted on charges of Vehicle Theft and Escape out of Jefferson County (OH) Sheriff's Office. Bassett was also wanted out of Monroe County (OH) Sheriff's Office for Parole Violation (Obstruct Police) and Wetzel County (WV) Sheriff's Office for Flight to Avoid.

Curtis Glauser, 36, wanted on charges of Vehicle Theft and Escape out of Jefferson County (OH) Sheriff's Office. Glauser was also wanted out of Tuscarawas County (OH) Sheriff's Office for Probation Violation (Possession of Fentanyl), and Strongsville (OH) PD for Failure to Appear on charges of shoplifting.

Jonni Lateigne, 30, of Harrisonburg. She was wanted on a Capias for failure to appear on a shoplifting charge.

Stephanie Cochran, 31, of Harrisonburg, was charged with obstruction of justice.

Both Bassett and Glauser had escaped from Eastern Ohio Correction Center (EOCC) last Monday night. They are being held at the Rockingham-Harrisonburg Regional Jail.

“This response was a cooperative effort between highly trained HPD, HFD, EMS and other partner agencies to ensure the safety of the community and the success of the operation,” said Interim Chief of Police Gabriel Camacho.

The Harrisonburg Police Department thanks affected residents and motorists for their cooperation during this search warrant.
