A. POLICY AND PURPOSE

This policy establishes the organizational structure of the Department and defines general responsibilities of department employees. The Harrisonburg Police Department will implement and maintain an organizational structure that provides clear and identifiable roles for command, control and guidance of the Department. Each position and assignment has clearly identified responsibilities and a defined chain of command.

B. ACCOUNTABILITY STATEMENT

All employees are expected to fully comply with the guidelines and timelines set forth in this policy. Responsibility rests with the supervisor to ensure that any violations of policy are investigated and appropriate training, counseling and/or disciplinary action is initiated. This directive is for internal use only, and does not enlarge an employee's civil liability in any way. It should not be construed as the creation of a higher standard of safety or care in an evidentiary sense, with respect to third party claims. Violation of this directive, if proven, can only form the basis of a complaint by this department, and then only in a non-judicial administrative setting.

C. BUREAUS

The Chief of Police is responsible for administering and managing the Harrisonburg Police Department. In addition to the Office of the Chief of Police, there are two bureaus in the Department:

- Administrative Bureau
- Operations Bureau

See attachment: 2024.05.29 Police Organization (Public)

D. COMMAND PROTOCOL

The Command Staff consists of all officers of the rank of Lieutenant and higher.

In addition to their assigned duties, members of the Command Staff will work a rotating schedule as Duty Officer to provide a command presence, when other Commanders are not present or on duty. Hours may vary according to need.

a. SUCCESSION OF COMMAND

The Chief of Police exercises command over all employees of the Harrisonburg Police Department. During planned absences, the Chief of Police will designate a Deputy Chief to serve as the acting Chief of Police or perform the executive command function.

Except when designated as above, the order of command authority would be determined by the City Manager or his designee.

b. UNITY OF COMMAND

The principles of unity of command ensure efficient supervision and control within the Department. Generally, each member shall be accountable to one supervisor at any time for a given assignment or responsibility. Each organizational component of the Department is under the direct command of one supervisor. Supervisors are accountable for employees under their immediate supervision. Except where specifically delegated authority may exist by policy or special assignment, any supervisor may temporarily direct any subordinate if an operational necessity exists. Employees should proceed directly up the chain of command for resolution if they believe that they received conflicting or unlawful orders.

E. AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Each employee will be assigned duties and responsibilities. Each employee is delegated the authority necessary to effectively execute those responsibilities. Each employee will also be held accountable for the appropriate application of that delegated authority.

F. OPERATIONAL AUDITS

Commanders are responsible for ensuring that line and staff inspections are conducted for reviewing and evaluating the operations of programs under their command. The focus of the inspections should include adherence to the Department's goals and mission statement, policies and procedures, and performance targets, as well as adequacy of resources and staffing or other subject matter as directed by the Chief of Police or the authorized designee. Line and staff inspections will be governed by the Inspections Policy.

Summary reports of staff and line inspections shall be forwarded through the chain of command to the Chief of Police or the authorized designee.
